10 Reasons Why You Should Advertise In

Decatur-Morgan

Living 50 Plus

1

A Targeted Audience

Baby boomers+ – born between 1946-1964
Generation X – born between 1965-1980

2

Magazine advertising drives web search, traffic and action taking

Research shows that ads in magazines or on magazine websites boost web traffic, spur online purchase and offline behavior including store visits and buzz.

3

The pass-along rate is generally 2.5 readers - A Longer Shelf Life

Magazine ads have staying power. A magazine left in a doctor's office will be read by countless patients for many months, and your ad can be seen by a majority of them.

4

Baby boomers have money

More than 70% of the disposable income in the US comes from baby boomers.

5

50+ Spend More Money Than Other Generations

A target market that's got money to spend (and is ready and willing to spend it!)

6

50+ Have the Most Disposable Income

Many are already retired and ready to spend their hard-earned retirement funds doing what they love and enjoy. With a household has an annual income of nearly $68,000, according to AARP. Bear in mind, many people in this demographic have paid off their houses and have fewer expenses than people in younger demographics. This means they're not strapped for cash; rather, they've paid their dues and are ready to spend their money on the things that they enjoy most.

7

50+ Have the Most Free Time

Because retirement is here or on the horizon for this generation, 50+ can now choose to spend their time and finances on the things they actually enjoy.

8

50+ have a higher net worth

The median net worth of people 50+ is $304,000.

9

50+ will soon be the age of the average American

By 2025, the average age of the American adult will be 50.

10

Local exposure unlike any other

The Magazine is inserted into the Decatur Daily Newspaper, our advertisers benefit from complimentary advertising in the paper, the Decaturdaily.com and the digital edition of Living 50+.
